Riverside County Market Intelligence

CRMLS residential, January 2024 – June 2026 — prices froze; the competitive order didn't.

EMORY WILLIAMS · IDX EXCHANGE DATA ANALYST INTERNSHIP · SUMMER 2026

$600K	$321	34 days	98.0%
median close price — unchanged 2024, 2025, and 2026 H1	median price per sq ft — unchanged all three years	days on market, 2026 H1 — IQR-filtered avg (31 in 2024)	sale-to-ask, 2026 H1 — IQR-filtered avg (98.6% in 2024)

MARKET OVERVIEW

Riverside's price level has not moved in thirty months — the change is in how long selling takes. The median closed at exactly $600,000 in 2024, in 2025, and again through June 2026, corroborated by a per-square-foot median likewise frozen at $321, which makes a mix-shift artifact unlikely. Nor is it clustering at a headline number: only 1.1% of closings land exactly at $600,000 and 3.1% within $5,000 of it, so the frozen median reflects a stable price distribution. What drifted is pace — average days on market rose from 31 to 34, about 10% slower.

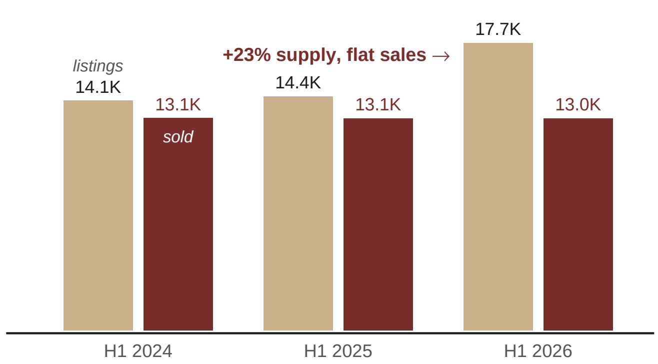
PRICING TRENDS

Sellers are conceding at the margin, not on price. The sale-to-ask ratio slipped from 0.986 to 0.980 — under one point, but every year of the window closed below asking. Negotiation, not repricing, is the only pricing dial that has moved.

MARKET ACTIVITY

Comparing like halves of the year, 2026 is the first time supply pulled away from sales: January–June listings ran 14,136 → 14,396 → 17,691 (+23%), while January–June sales were 13,065 → 13,053 → 13,047 — flat to within 18 transactions. New listings per closed sale: 1.08 → 1.10 → 1.36.

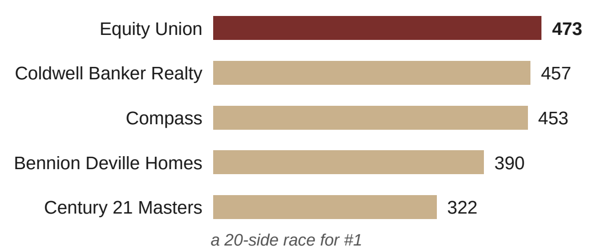
New listings vs. closed sales, Jan–Jun of each year



COMPETITIVE LANDSCAPE

While volume froze, the leaderboard reshuffled. A regional independent — Equity Union — now runs the county's #1 office by closed listing sides, in a 20-side dead heat with Coldwell Banker Realty and Compass. At brand level, Coldwell Banker remains largest and growing (6.3→7.0% of listing sides), Century 21 3.4→4.4%, Compass 3.1→3.9%; Keller Williams slipped 5.5→4.9% and Opendoor wound down 0.8→0.2%. It mirrors California at large: Compass leads the state at $23.7B of 2024 volume, insurgent brands are doubling their affordable-tier share — and only 21 of 500 (then 16 of 495) top producers changed brands, so the race is being won through listing acquisition, not agent movement (statewide figures computed from the same extract; see footnote).

Closed sides, 2026 H1 — top offices



KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Prices haven't moved: median $600,000 and $321/sq ft are flat across 2024–2026, while days on market drifted from 31 to 34.
- Supply is pulling ahead: like-for-like, Jan–Jun listings jumped 14.1K → 14.4K → 17.7K (+23%) while Jan–Jun sales stayed flat within 18 transactions (1.08 → 1.10 → 1.36 listings per sale).
- The top is a dead heat: Equity Union (473 sides) leads Coldwell Banker Realty (457) and Compass (453) by under 5% in 2026 H1.
- Share shifted even as volume froze: Coldwell 6.3→7.0%, Century 21 3.4→4.4%, Compass 3.1→3.9%; Keller Williams 5.5→4.9%, Opendoor 0.8→0.2%.
- What to watch: if H2 2026 sustains the H1 supply gap, the first crack in the $600K median should appear in sale-to-ask before it appears in price.

CRMLS closed residential sales, Riverside County, Jan 2024 – Jun 2026. Supply–sales comparisons are Jan–Jun of each year (like-for-like; no annualization anywhere). 255 placeholder records excluded from rankings; sale-to-ask guarded to (0,2]; DOM and sale-to-ask tiles are IQR-filtered averages, price tiles are all-rows medians. Statewide figures (Compass volume, producer-switch counts, tier shares) are computed from the same statewide CRMLS extract with the same rules — no external sources. Dashboards: public.tableau.com/app/profile/emory.williams · Code: github.com/jackemorywilliams-bit/idx-exchange-su26